

Fin-tech signs NPAA Members Johnnie Candle #42 & Jim Carroll #13

Fin-tech Tackle Company is excited to announce the signing of North Dakota's Walleye Pro's Johnnie Candle and Jim Carroll to a 2-year sponsorship deal.

Fin-tech President Doug Hartle said: "We know Johnnie and Jim are consummate pro's and great educators. They fit well with the Fin-tech strategy to develop the most respected fishing team in the industry."

Fin-tech National Marketing Director John Butts added: "Our lures are designed by professional anglers who know catching fish is everything. So our innovations aren't just new flashy aesthetics. We always put quality and functionality first. Johnnie and Jim saw the benefits of using our lures for different fishing situations, and will be providing valuable input for new designs."

Johnnie and Jim have been fishing the In-Fishermen Professional Walleye Trail for over 10 years and are well accomplished anglers and fishing educators.

Fin-tech is also hooking up with Johnnie and Jim to help promote there extremely successful Sheels Walleye University Seminars. Go to <http://www.scheels.com> for more info.

"We are thrilled to be working with a company as creative as Fin-tech," Candle and Carroll said. "They understand the demands of hardcore light tackle anglers, and are constantly working to design products that will boost our catches."